Prayer Intention: We pray that all those elected to public office will serve for the good of all who live in our country.

About Being Catholic - the second in our new series exploring together our faith. This month "Catholic and God." Wednesday 12th at 7.30pm.

Theology on Track — Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation — an evening in The Railway Tavern, Clapham HighStreet, with young(ish) adults with some theological input and lots of time for discussion, chat and a drink or two! This Wednesday 12 May at 7pm, the speaker will be Fr Martin Poulson.

The Ace of Clubs, has recently re-open the Clapham Junction shop, and is short of Volunteers. If you have a day a week to spare on a regular basis, could you hand your details to Reception or to one of the shops and Amanda will be in touch with you. They also need people to work behind the scenes, with steaming, ironing and preparing the clothes so that they can sell them.

Theological Reading Group: Have you ever wanted a chance to read a serious, but interesting theological book and be able to discuss it with other like minded people? A new group will be meeting at 8pm, once a month (3rd Thursday) in St Mary's Monastery for an hour. We will start with Sebastian Moore's book, "The Contagion of Jesus — Doing Theology as if it Mattered". Please read the appropriate chapter before the session, 20 May — Chapter 3. Book available from all good bookshops. See poster in church porch for details.

New Archbishop. Archbishop Peter Smith, currently the Archbishop of Cardiff, has been appointed. He will be installed as our new Archbishop, in St George's Cathedral on June 10th. More details will follow.
